The big event in the youth of 29 young people was celebrated Thursday night at Glendale High in the exercises with which they were graduated from the school.

Their entrance to the strains of a professional march, "Hail, America" (Drum) played by the school orchestra, directed by Mrs. Dora Gibson, was most impressive, the gowning of the girls a soft rainbow of color—pink, lavender, green, white, and each carrying violets. Behind them came their class teachers, George O. Lockwood and Iva F. Hunter.

The sentiments of an audience which filled every chair in the auditorium were very satisfactorily expressed by the orator of the evening, Reynold E. Blight, who spoke of the enthusiasm with which he always accepted the invitation to talk at a commencement because it gave him opportunity to address responsive minds unfettered by prejudices, minds which would make the future of the world. He dwelt on the high calling of the teacher. He complimented the orchestra (applause) the girls' glee club, which had sung charmingly under the direction of Mrs. Florence Parker. "The Maiden's Wish" (Chopin) and "The Lady of Dreams" (Mabel Daniels). He complimented the class (still more applause); and finally complimented Glendale on having such a class, such a school, such teachers and such trustees, and the applause became quite deafening.

Mr. Blight has the happy faculty of saying agreeable things in the fluent, easy and convincing manner that always gratifies an audience and paves the way for his more serious argument.

His theme was: "The four greatest things." After some tantalizing intimations of things that it might be but was not, he finally named as the greatest power, "Truth." "Money," he declared, becomes 100 percent more powerful when used by truth, and truth is the only conquering power.

"Love," he pronounced the greatest force in the world because we are moved not so much by reason as by the passions that move us. The most wonderful thing in the world he insisted is "beauty." "That," said he, "is something we Americans are very much inclined to forget. When you begin to travel you will realize the crass ugliness of our American civilization in comparison with Great Britain or Italy where for centuries there has been a cult for beauty."

The most beautiful thing in the world he declared to be a pretty face, which mirrors a loveable and gracious personality, because in its analysis real beauty is beauty of soul. "The features," said he, may be anything but beautiful, but there is something that can be thrown into that face to make it glorified.

"What is the most enduring possession you can have?" was his fourth and last question, which he answered with the word "Character."

ART ASSOCIATION CALLS MEETING AT LA RAMADA

The Casa Verdugo Park and Art association, which was recently organized for the purpose of establishing an art center in Glendale, and urging the purchase of the old adobe building at La Ramada for this purpose, will give its first formal open meeting at La Ramada on Sunday afternoon, February 4, from 3 o'clock until 4. Harold C. Swartz (will deliver a lecture on "Art, Its Place and Influence in the Community."

There will be an exhibition of pictures by Mr. Kratsnow. These will be of the impressionistic type. The public is cordially invited. A meeting of the executive board of the association was held last night at the home of Mrs. Ballagh, 202 West Doran street, where reports showed that things are going along nicely towards the consummation of buying and keeping up this proposed art center.

CASA VERDUGO TO BE ASKED FOR PETITION

Superintendent Richardson D. White will take up with the Casa Verdugo Improvement Association at a special meeting to be held in the Central Avenue school Monday night, the matter of circulating petitions to be signed by the heads of families in the Casa Verdugo district for its re-annexation to Glendale for school purposes. On Tuesday night the same matter will be taken up with the fathers of the Broadway P.T.A. with reference to Sycamore Canyon territory.

LET'S STOP ROCKING THE BOAT

The mania for spending the taxpayers' money is increasing. A citizen or a city official gets an idea and immediately turns to the coffers of the city for aid in putting it over. This is probably true of a great many cities, but during the past year Glendale has experienced a regular orgy of spending.

The Glendale Press realizes that it is essential to spend money for improvements and additions made necessary by our rapid growth, and it will recommend and work for all such expenditures. We must, for example, recognize the absolute necessity of furnishing proper school facilities and must not be niggardly in this direction. We also realize that Glendale as a city should have parks. A proposition is now being presented to buy a plot of ground on Broadway for a civic center at a cost around $300,000, including equipment, the argument being that this is the last available site for such purpose and if not secured now it will be lost forever. But is this true? We think not. Ever since the city voted to transfer the high school to its new site at Broadway and Verdugo road, the present location has been the subject of discussion for a civic center. When the high school trustees were approached in regard to the matter they indicated a willingness to sell the site as it stands to the city only—mark that—with all its permanent buildings, for a sum not much in excess of $300,000, this sum to be immediately reinvested for school purposes. It is admitted that this plant must continue to be used for another year for school purposes, but after that it would be available for a civic center. That it would make an ideal one both in its central location and setting. It could not be duplicated for twice the sum suggested, but it belongs to the citizens of Glendale and would be merely converted from one use to another for the public benefit; in other words, a transfer of assets from one pocket to another. There would be no legal obstacles in the way of obtaining it. The law gives school trustees authority to sell school property when it seems expedient to do so.

A large amount of the taxpayers' money has been spent lately for parks and we are reliably informed that city council members are contemplating further expenditures along this line. We see no occasion for Glendale to provide parks other than resting places, for have we not Griffith park right at our door? It is conceded to be one of the finest parks in the country and numbers 3751 acres.

We should also take into account the present assets of the city along this line. At the present time Glendale has eleven elementary schools with campuses aggregating 44 1-3 acres, two high schools, including the new one building, with grounds totalling 35 acres, or a total of 79 1-3 acres, and the prospective bond issue for grade schools includes a provision for the purchase of twelve acres more, making a grand total of 91 1-3 acres of school land within the confines of Glendale. School authorities estimate that about 30 per cent of this acreage is covered with buildings, leaving approximately 60 acres available for playground purposes, and there is a growing disposition on the part of the community to use these assets day and night, Saturdays and Sundays.

But these are not our only resources. According to data furnished by the city hall, the city owns Glendale Verdugo park of 184 acres; it has recently purchased on San Fernando road near Grand View, 33 acres; its Patterson Avenue park contains about ten acres; it has a small site on East Maple, used for a reservoir to serve the Tropic district; an acre west of the Southern Pacific tracks at the western end of Colorado street; 7½ acres south of the old Verdugo park; two acres at the head of Louise street which was an old reservoir site; a two-acre plot adjoining Magnolia school, thought to belong to the city, which is really held by the school board; a total in the neighborhood of 240 acres.

Taking a total of the property owned by the city and available for park purposes and school playgrounds which would be more or less available for all the population, and adding Griffith park, which is closer to Glendale than it is to any residence section of Los Angeles, we have a total of about 4051 acres. This should be enough for a city even as large as Glendale is bound to become.

The expenditures and liabilities of the city in connection with Glendale-Verdugo park may be reckoned as follows: Amount paid on purchase price in 1922, $20,000; cost of improvements to date, $8200; making total expenditure to date of $28,200. Amount due December 1, 1923, $20,000; amount due December 1, 1924, $20,000.

In this connection should be studied the proposed park and playground budget for 1922-23:
Patterson Avenue park, improvements	$10,000.00
Capital outlay	1,640.00
Verdugo park for improvements and payment on purchase	30,000.00
Maintenance of Verdugo park	4,800.00
Swimming pool maintenance	3,400.00
Playgrounds on school campuses	400.00
Unappropriated	10,361.27
Maintenance of Patterson Avenue park	3,100.00
Maintenance of Piedmont and other small parks	1,000.00

Total park and playground budget for 1922-23 . . . $64,701.27

In the face of these figures and taking account of the fact that the people of Glendale are not inclined to use the Glendale-Verdugo park to any great extent, we offer the following suggestion, which we believe embodies the sentiment of a large group of citizens: That the Glendale-Verdugo park be sold! Two of our council members have intimated that it could be disposed of at a profit to the city. With the money realized from such a sale, property now owned by the city could be converted into small parks; thus providing breathing places in all parts of the municipality where perhaps stands could be erected in which summer band concerts could be given.

A second suggestion is that city officials immediately enter into negotiations with Los Angeles city and the supervisors of Los Angeles county for the building of a bridge across the Los Angeles river which would enable Glendale to use Griffith park the coming summer.

The Glendale city council has recently proposed the appointment of a park commission with a paid superintendent. Were the plans suggested herein carried out, a paid superintendent could be made very useful. Not otherwise.

The crux of the whole situation is that Glendaleans should get together on a municipal thrift campaign to use available assets and stop spending money for real estate not needed. It is going to cost considerable to provide the school facilities we must have, but those are necessary and a permanent investment we can ill afford to do without. Nothing should be proposed that is liable to divert the public attention from the vital importance of the essential needs of the hour.

SANITARIUM PURCHASE IS ADVOCATED

The purchase of the sanitarium site for civic center purposes was endorsed by the Glendale Realty board at its meeting Thursday noon. The action of the board followed the reading by Secretary Hayward of a letter from the Glendale Exchange club, asking that such action be taken by the realty board. The general sentiment as expressed by the members who spoke on this subject was that as the available sites for such purposes are practically gone, the city should avail itself of this opportunity of securing this remaining site.

A committee consisting of Peter Hanson, chairman, Charles B. Guthrie and Mr. Babcock, was appointed to meet with the combined civic committee at the Glendale chamber of commerce next Monday evening and to go there armed with the recommendation of the board in this matter.

The Glendale residence directory that has just been gotten out by a Los Angeles firm was condemned as being incomplete in the extreme. Several members expressed themselves very emphatically as being dissatisfied with the directory.

"I happen to be connected with a corporation that employs the heads of thirty families in Glendale," said W. P. MacMullin, "and only three of those families are mentioned in this directory. It's the bunk."

A committee consisting of L. H. Wilson, W. S. Kirk and William MacMullin was appointed to look into the prospects of another directory being published, preferably by a Glendale individual or concern, that would correctly list the residents of this city.

CLARA PHILLIPS IS FOUND WITHIN MEXICO

Identified in Chihuahua City by Private Sleuths

(Copyright, 1923, by United Press).

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 2.—Clara Phillips, escaped hammer murderer, was today in Chihuahua City, Mexico, according to private detectives who are trailing her.

She has been identified there by these officers and former intimate friends, and has openly boasted that she is the "tiger woman" who saved her way out of the Los Angeles jail on December 5, after conviction, on a charge of murdering Mrs. Alberta Meadows.

Headed toward the Mexican capital, she and friends who are with her, are openly declaring that they have enough influence in the unrecognition republic with which the United States has no extradition dealings, to assure safety.

Until yesterday Clara was hidden away in the cross-cross section of crooked alleys which is the underworld of Juarez, over the Rio Grande river from here.

Constantly watched by three different sets of men who sought to bring her over the line, she slipped away from under the eyes of them all, and this morning appeared in Chihuahua City.

Today the story of her location in Juarez and the efforts that were being made to "strong arm" her and bring about deportation can be told. It has been kept in confidence by the United Press while there was any chance of bringing her back to the United States to serve her sentence in San Quentin penitentiary, California.

CITY TOLD TO BUY ITS OWN SAFETY FIRST

State Railroad Commission Declines to Order S. P. to Wig Wag

A communication was received by the city council from the state railroad commission Thursday night to the effect that the commission will not compel the Pacific Electric company to erect a wig-wag signal at the crossing at Gaudena avenue, just south of San Fernando road. If the city wants a wig-wag at that point, or if the city wishes to maintain a crossing at that location, it will have to buy its own signal. If a signal is not erected the crossing must come out.

"If I can help it this city is not going to buy things for the Pacific Electric company," said Councilman Stephenson, "the next thing they will ask is that we purchase cowcatchers for the railroad."

"What can they do if we don't install the wig-wag?" asked Councilman Lapham. "Can they put us in jail?"

"They will simply remove the crossing, I suppose," replied City Attorney Shaw.

C. OF C. ANNUAL MEETING IS DATED

The annual meeting and dinner of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce will be held on Tuesday, February 6, at 6:30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. Only those who make reservations now can be accommodated. The price will be $1 per plate and reservations may be made by telephoning the Chamber of Commerce office—Glendale 1262. A working program for the year and other important matters will be taken up for discussion at this meeting.

CIVIC CENTER PLAN AT CIVICS MEETING

"Community Service" and "Civic Problems in Glendale" were the features of the talk given by Geo. B. Karr, chairman of the civics committee of the Glendale chamber of commerce, at the regular open forum meeting yesterday afternoon of the Thursday Afternoon club, held at the K. of P. hall at South Brand boulevard and Park avenue.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Wm. C. Mabry, president, and Mr. Karr was introduced. He told of the development in the southern section of the city and how the vision of the people who saw the future of this part of the city is being fulfilled. "This," he said, "is true in all parts of Glendale. The people should have the vision to see the advisability of securing now, civic centers and parks, which in the future could not be purchased for much larger expenditures."

He said the development of Glendale is so sure that any amount of money we spend in civic parks or civic developments now will mean a big saving later. The big boost for Glendale is Glendale itself. If we had a civic center with a large public auditorium, it would attract a number of conventions to this city, and once you get the people here they cannot resist coming again.

JACKSON SELLS OUT

JANUARY BUILDING EXCEEDS PER CAPITA RECORD OF ALL SO. CALIFORNIA CITIES

Based on Population of 35,000, Shows $29.50 Per Person Is Expended in New Construction at Opening of the Year

Glendale has started out the year 1923 with building activities that are, according to the number of people living here, practically twice as great as those experienced in any of the other cities of Southern California.

Here's the story in a nutshell: Permits for January in Glendale, $1,024,336. Based on a population of 35,000, this shows $29.25 worth of building per person.

Pasadena, building permits, $772,483; population, 60,000; per capita, $12.90.

Long Beach, building permits, $1,333,026. Population, 90,000; per capita $15.33.

Los Angeles, building permits, $11,258,517. Population, 800,000; per capita, $14.00.

Los Angeles is twenty-three times the size of Glendale and during January she had but eleven times as great a valuation in building permits.

The above figures were compiled by L. H. Wilson, realtor at the corner of Park and San Fernando road. Mr. Wilson personally secured these figures from the building departments of the cities named.

FIVE ACCIDENTS ON GLENDALE STREETS

Five automobile accidents occurred in Glendale yesterday. Automobiles belonging to Charles C. Joliffe, 520 South San Fernando road, and a person whose name could not be learned, collided at 1 o'clock at the corner of Brand and Broadway. Little damage was done.

Excitement reigned when a machine operated by O. F. Lund, 413 Arden avenue and a car driven by a person whose name could not be learned, met on Arden, the accident taking place at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. No one was injured.

Very little damage was done when autos driven by Elina Roberts, 121 West Acacia, and S. L. Wood of Los Angeles, came together at the corner of Brand and Laurel at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Another tangle occurred when a machine driven by Ira A. Tatum, of Los Angeles, and another operated by Mr. Toutz of Los Angeles came together at the corner of Park and Central, the accident occurring at 9:15 o'clock yesterday morning. No one was hurt.

Commencement exercises for the two intermediate schools of Glendale will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in Glendale High.

Reynold Blight will be the orator of the evening and the balance of the program will be musical. A procession of the class will be played by the combined orchestras of the two schools and four numbers will be sung by the combined girls' glee clubs. Dr. P. O. Lucas, member of the Board of Education, will present the diplomas after the class has been presented to the board by Superintendent Richardson D. White. The program will close with the singing of Kipling's "Recessional" by the class, accompanied by the orchestra.

RECKLESS DRIVING

H. V. Danley, 502 Garfield street, Pasadena, was arrested by Motor Officer Collins, yesterday, the charge against him being reckless driving. He deposited bail in the amount of $50 pending his hearing today.

Dog Owners Called to the City Council

Mrs. John S. Knox of 425 South Central avenue urges that all dog owners and dog lovers of Glendale attend the meeting of the city council on Monday night when a hearing of the proposed ordinance regarding vaccination of dogs will come up.

ROTARIANS TABLE THE CITY CENTER

Thought Best to Take No Action Until School Bond Election Held

At the regular noonday luncheon meeting of the Glendale Rotary Club held Thursday at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium, the subject of a civic center for Glendale, and especially the Glendale Sanitarium site was brought up by J. I. Wernette, but owing to the proposed school bond election, it was thought best that no action be taken at this time, and the matter was laid on the table. There were forty-five members and guests present. The visiting Rotarians included: Arthur M. Loomis of Los Angeles, J. Will Johnson of Pueblo, Colo.; Ben E. Bannard of Mitchell, South Dakota, and H. B. Potter of Los Angeles. Other visitors were: William Rhoads, who was a guest of James Rhoads, Harry Rimmer and Rex C. Kelley, guests of Jim Newton; David Black, as guest of Richardson D. White; H. A. Harding, of Los Angeles; Mayor Crawford, of Burbank, accompanied by Messrs. Cummins, Sanderson and Dr. Zeis.

Roy L. Kent was in charge of the meeting. Community singing was led by France Henry. Three of the directors were appointed by the president to act as a reception committee for February, as follows: Bill Howe, Val Hollister and Charles Cooper. Secretary Herbert Smith read a telegram received from Harry Webb at Red Oak, Iowa, advising that he would return home next week.

Announcement was made at the Shrine Club entertainment to be held February 8 at the T. D. & L. Theatre, the proceeds to be used for the erection of a clubhouse for the Shrine Club of Glendale. George U. Moyse presented the new members with the Rotary Club code of ethics. Dr. Fay Stone responded. A letter was read by Mr. Moyse, chairman of the educational committee, which he had received from the International headquarters telling of the convention to be held in St. Louis in June.

Attention was called to the Boy Scouts drive for funds, and the following were named as patrol leaders for the drive: France Henry, Jack Huntley and George Bentley. David Black introduced Harry Rimmer, who gave a talk on "Service." Charles Cooper told of the work of organizing the Burbank Rotary Club, which is to be next Tuesday, probably at the Sunset Canyon Country Club.

THE COMMITTEE OF SCHOOLS HAS STATEMENT

Concerning action taken by the Committee of Eleven appointed by the Los Angeles Teachers' Institute to investigate the county auditor's figures on school cost, Superintendent Richardson D. White reports that the committee met Wednesday afternoon and formulated a statement its members were willing to sign and the same was to be submitted to Auditor Payne for his signature. If he signs the statement it will be submitted to the Board of Supervisors as a supplementary report, at another hearing. If he does not sign it, another meeting of the committee will be held to consider what further steps it will be necessary to take. The committee has adjourned subject to the call of the chairman.

BOY SCOUTS ENJOY BIG GATHERING

"Wonderful Meeting," Says Pres. Eastman of Council

SWARM LOS ANGELES

Reception to Chief Executive West Is Worthy of Southwest

"California and Region Twelve, of which it is a part, stands higher in Scouting and has made more advancement in the promotion of the Boy Scout movement than any other state in the Union," declares James E. West, chief scout executive of the Boy Scouts of America in an address to more than 600 Scout leaders and council members of Southern California, Thursday evening at the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A.

"It was a wonderfully inspirational meeting," declared A. R. Eastman, president of the local Scout council this morning. "Scout officials were gathered there all the way from Bakersfield to San Diego. I was very much pleased with the delegation from Glendale, which consisted of one of the largest groups present. Our men boosted Glendale and the Verdugo Hills district with all the noise we could and before we were through every one of the 600 men knew where the 'fastest growing city in America' was situated. Those in our delegation were George B. Karr, Harry Girard, Col. James W. Everington, Peter L. Ferry, James Guinn of Brooklyn, N. Y., Charles L. Chandler, Frank C. Ayars, Charles H. Toll, E. E. Harwood, D. W. Pollard, Harold Baxter and myself. C. W. Angier and A. C. Cox from La Crescenta, were also in our party as was Ray B. Sanders of Eagle Rock, and Dr. E. H. Wilson of Burbank."

According to Mr. West there are now 250 troops of Boy Scouts organized in the state of California with a membership of 15,000 boys. "I attended a special meeting of the war department heads recently," said Mr. West, "to discuss what constituted its responsibility especially during times of peace. There were five potential responsibilities that were decided upon that would result in making every man and woman in the United States, honest, reliable Americans. These were first, every man and woman in America must, during youth, be trained to appreciate the value of physical fitness; second, general education. One out of every four in the city of New York cannot read or write the English language; third, vocational skill; fourth, character and development; and fifth, right attitude of mind."

"America's greatest problem today is to overcome antagonism among those who are recruited for citizenship. Scouting is 100 per cent American and teaches the right and real Americanism." Capt. Albert K. Matthews, chaplain at Fort McArthur, was toastmaster. An address was made by Stuart W. French, chairman of the Twelfth Regional committee, B. S. A., and Harry Girard sang and played his own accompaniment on the piano. Additional music was furnished by the Pasadena Boy Scout Hawaiian orchestra and the Los Angeles Boy Scout band.

"Only the surface has been scratched, only the high tops of the high hills have been touched in Boy Scout work," Mr. West told the councilmen and Scout leaders. Mr. West then went on to say that the Boy Scout movement has proved its practical and substantial value to society and with the support of the leading men of the country behind it, its progress in the next few years should be phenomenal.

Since Mr. West's last visit to California some years ago, the number of Boy Scouts has more than tripled, and every district in the entire state has now at least five troops. Mr. West will remain in Los Angeles until Sunday, attending a series of meetings with the Boy Scouts and Scout officials of Southern California. Today he will be the guest of Douglas Fairbanks, William G. McArdoo and Thomas Patten. Tomorrow morning he will address a huge gathering of the Boy Scouts of Southern California in the Hill Street theater at 10:30. Nearly 200 Scouts from the Verdugo Hills district alone are planning to hear Mr. West talk. Tomorrow night a dinner will be tendered him by the scout executives of Southern California at the University club.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Jencks of 409 North Maryland avenue attended a reception given at Artesia Tuesday night in honor of the grand patron of the state of California, Order of the Eastern Star.

LEGION POST ISSUES WARNING TO HOUSEKEEPERS

January 30, 1923.
Editor Daily Press,
Glendale, California.

Dear Sir:

In many parts of the country citizens have been besieged by fakers pretending to do things for our disabled and other ex-service men. Glendale has not escaped. The majority of these pretensions are in the solicitation for magazines. A great many of these solicitors are not ex-service men at all and the majority of the remainder are very unscrupulous ex-service men. In the majority of these cases the solicitors misrepresent. They prey on the sympathies. They tell the public they are helping ex-service men. They are probably helping two—the solicitor and the publisher, and then only if they happen to be ex-service men. During the Christmas holidays a crew of these questionable, made a hasty exit from our streets, due to efficient action by members of the American Legion.

This present week, from house to house and door to door, is being peddled a magazine known as "Treat 'Em Square." This magazine does not have the sanction or endorsement of your local ex-service men of the American Legion, the men who are working with you for a finer, better and bigger Glendale.

Will you not in as many ways as you can bring this matter to the attention of our friends? Ask them, in the name of the Legion, not to encourage these affairs by their patronage. The men of Glendale Post No. 127 will be glad to sanction any worthy cause, and when these solicitors are on the squares they will not hesitate to come to the men of that body for an approval of their case.

Our friends should feel free only in cases where an approval is presented on the stationery of Glendale Post No. 127, American Legion, and signed by the commander.

Commander.

ARMY AND NAVY STORE STAGES BIG SALE

The Army and Navy Store, Brand at Harvard, Glendale, is putting on a two days' sale starting Saturday, which should attract much attention by those desiring to get real values for their money. Elsewhere in this issue appears an advertisement which gives an array of bargains that should not be overlooked. The lines named are standard and are sold at prices that should move the goods very rapidly.

This sale is put on to make room for the large spring stock which is on the way here, and the Army and Navy Store is going to conduct a two days' sale that will move the goods rapidly. This store carries a most complete line of goods, and those who have shopped at the big city stores say that the Army and Navy Store here carries a line of goods and sells at prices that are not duplicated anywhere. The stock is selected with care by Messrs. Waring & Johnson, the purveyors, and they are giving Glendale a store that should bring a big patronage and grow rapidly. Don't fail to visit their store Saturday and Monday.

The district visitor was calling on Mrs. Harris, a new comer to an English village. "You seem to have a great many children, Mrs. Harris," she said. "Yes, mum," said Mrs. Harris. "and what's more, all their names begin with a h-a-i-l-h." "There's 'Uberty, my oldest. Then comes 'ilda, 'Arriet and 'Orace. Then there's 'Aroid and 'Arty and 'etor and 'Onoria. They're all h-a-i-l-hes; all except the baby, and we christened 'er 'Helvie."

"On the charge of rocking me to sleep." "Nonsense," explained Jones. "You can't get a person arrested for rocking you to sleep." "Can't I? You ought to see the rock," said Smith.

REALTY BOARD TO QUESTION C. OF C.

Committee Appointed to Investigate Disposition of Inquiries

Investigation as to the reason why requests for information concerning Glendale property, received from all parts of the United States by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce are not being turned over to the Glendale Realty Board so that all of the realtors of Glendale may have an opportunity of providing those inquiring, with the desired places, was started at the meeting of the Glendale Realty Board at the C. & S. cafeteria, Thursday noon.

The board appointed a committee consisting of Mayor Robinson and G. H. Wendt to confer with the board of directors of the chamber as soon as possible and to report back to the realty board.

The action in this direction was started by the receipt of a letter by E. P. Hayward, secretary of the Glendale Realty Board, referred to him by Secretary Rhoades of the Chamber of Commerce. This communication was received by the chamber from a person living outside Glendale, who wants a chicken ranch of small dimensions in or near this city. This letter was read by the secretary for consideration of the board.

"I wonder what becomes of all the inquiries for Glendale property received by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce," said Peter Hanson, realtor, with offices on West Broadway. "I can remember the time when a number of such inquiries were referred to the Realty Board every week. Now we get one every week or so, and that a scrubby little thing that is hardly worth our consideration."

The chamber has grown wonderfully since the days in which the larger number of inquiries were received, but the number of requests that have been turned over to the Glendale Realty Board has diminished to practically nothing.

"I believe this board should communicate with the Glendale Chamber of Commerce with the view of securing the cooperation of that organization. The chamber expects our support and they get it, and we have a right to expect theirs. When there are big deals to be passed around I believe the members of the Realty Board should be given an opportunity to get in on them. I do not believe these inquiries should be handed to any particular few."

"I am pretty much of the same opinion as Mr. Hanson," said Dr. Jessie A. Russell. "The Glendale chamber of commerce is a purely civic organization—at least, it should be such—and it should not be in the real estate business. We are getting mighty few inquiries for property from that source, and the inference is that those received must be going somewhere. If this board is receiving all of the inquiries for property that are being received by the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, the fact that so few are received does not reflect a great deal of credit on the chamber."

"The inquiries that are handed over to us are purely sop—nothing but sop," said President Cameron Thom.

The shadows lay thick beneath the tree, and where they were deepest a figure crouched. Suddenly he heard a sound, a light footfall on the grass. "That you, mate?" he whispered hoarsely.

"Yes," came the answer. "What you doing with that dog?" he muttered, as his burglar partner drew near. "Why," answered his confederate, "there was nothing worth taking in the house, and it's bad luck to come away without anything. So I pinched the watchdog and these burglar alarms!"

FERTILIZER EXPERIMENTS
That "there is a positive value to be derived from fertilizing citrus trees on any of the soils involved in these trials, as measured by increased crop yields," is the report of fertilizer experiments which have been carried on for several years in Southern California by the University of California College of Agriculture.

The value of fertilizing is primarily associated with the use of nitrogen and bulky organic material has been of large importance for this purpose, according to the report in Bulletin 345, just published by the University of California, Agricultural Experiment Station.

Growers should remember, states the publication, that "field trials with fruit trees are generally designed to measure the effect of contrasting systems of orchard management and cannot furnish exact answers to specific questions concerning the economy of any certain kind, amount or method of application of fertilizer." Field trials and orchard surveys reported upon indicate clearly that fertilization is required for the economical production of citrus fruits under usual Southern California conditions.

"When You Buy Advertising, You Buy Circulation"

Tailor-Made Advertising

One great fact must be remembered by those who have made the decision to advertise. The advertising plan must fit the business to which it is applied. There are no ready-to-wear advertising plans; each one must be tailor made.

The purpose of advertising is to increase business and not to relieve any one of his arduous duties. The manufacturer's salesman who regards advertising as a substitute for his own efforts has missed the point. His efforts are needed more than ever to support the advertising and put it across. His reward is larger sales.

Likewise, the merchant who chooses the advertised brands because they are "soft and easy" selling, has overlooked the essential idea. Certainly they sell easier; but this is not the big important truth. Rather, he should see that the manufacturer's advertising is an instrument put into his hands for increasing his volume and speeding up his turnover. Looking at the matter in this light, he will bend every effort to cooperate with the advertising and seek to make it pay him additional profits.

Advertising is not a form of perpetual motion that goes on forever without human assistance. The biggest problem any man has to settle after he has determined to advertise, and decided how to advertise, is this: How can I use my advertising so as to get the most out of it? Without close-linked cooperation it dissipates its force into air.

It must be hitched on to a business properly. Then it must be utilized with intelligence. When these conditions are fulfilled it does a type of work for which there is no efficient substitute.

MME. WISNIEWSKA CHARMS TUESDAY CLUB GATHERING

Concert at Cleophas Home
Is Artistic Triumph of Music

An artistic feast was the highly interesting musical program given Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Ed Cleophas, 337 North Central avenue, given for the benefit of the "Furnishing fund" of the literary section for the new Tuesday Afternoon club home. Over 100 people were present. The program was opened by Mme. Teodora Wisniewska, a very accomplished coloratura soprano, who sang exquisitely. Her cadenzas in the waltz from "Romeo and Juliette" and especially in Chopin's "Waltz," were rendered in a brilliant way and with such artistic finesse as to win the admiration of the enthusiastic audience present.

The singing of Elia Faggioli was also highly appreciated. He is the possessor of a pure and sweet tenor voice. He was splendidly assisted on the piano by his wife, Mrs. Bertha Faggioli, who is an accomplished pianist.

The piano playing of Miss Gertrude Cleophas was a revelation and genuine treat worth far to go to hear. She displayed much warmth, interpretation and artistry. Miss Cleophas studied for several years abroad under the great teacher, Leschitzky, at Vienna.

Story poems with original musical setting by Phyllis Ferguson of Chicago, who is wintering in Southern California, were well received and she was compelled to respond with encloses several times. The rendition of a duet from "Carmen" by Mrs. Wisniewska and Mr. Faggioli was another treat. Both artists acquitted themselves most admirably and the audience gave them a real ovation.

The program closed with Grieg's "Concerto" for two pianos, played by Miss Cleophas and Mrs. DeLorenzo of Los Angeles. Both of the pianists played brilliantly. Their technique and artistic interpretation was flawless. Tumultuous applause also greeted their number.

The soloists were honored with bouquets of flowers. Mme. Wisniewska was accompanied at the piano by her teacher, the celebrated prima donna, Mme. Felicia Romanowska.

BISHOP DU BOSE K. OF C. TO HOLD TO SPEAK IN GLENDALE OPEN HOUSE

To Make First Official
Visit to M. E. Church,
South, Sunday

Bishop H. M. DuBose, D. D., LL. D., will make his first official visit to Glendale Sunday, filling the pulpit at the Broadway M. E. Church South, corner of Cedar and Broadway, at 3 o'clock, it being understood that the public in general is invited to the meeting.

The bishop is one of the best informed men of the Methodist church, and is no stranger to the west, having been pastor of the Trinity M. E. Church South, Los Angeles, when a young man, and is a man of a wide vision.

He did such work as general superintendent of church work in the west, covering the states of Montana, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, New Mexico, Arizona and California, that he was returned to this western field for another four years. The church membership has doubled and quadrupled in many places; churches all over the connection have been enlarged to accommodate the folks and many $25,000 churches have been remodeled or newly built at a cost of $100,000 and more.

The Glendale church has increased from 52 to 75 members just recently, an organization only in effect since December 10, 1922.

Many others are considering coming into the Broadway church and they are expecting one hundred members by Easter. Bishop Du Bose, before being made a bishop, served his church as pastor of many of the stronger churches, and general secretary of the Epworth League, also as editor for church periodicals, book editor, magazine editor and editor of papers.

The last meeting of the Colorado Parent-Teacher Association, of which Mrs. E. S. McKee is president, to be held during the present semester of the school year, took place yesterday afternoon, with the members of A6 class as the special guests.

City Manager Reeves was present as a representative of the American Legion and gave an inspiring talk to the pupils of the A6 grade. The children of this class then sang "America, the Beautiful." Miss Ida Waite, principal of the Colorado street school, presented silk flags for the past six months.

Rebecca Brant, former pupil of the Colorado street school, gave two piano numbers, "Yuccas" (Cadmian) and "The Scarf Dance" (Chaminade). The program closed with the singing of "America."

During the afternoon the children of the sixth grade who were to enter the Intermediate school next week, were given a treat of ice cream and cake. Refreshments of tea and wafers were served to the mothers present.

Hard Times Dance to Be Given in New Home
on Feb. 6

On Tuesday evening, February 6, the Glendale Knights of Columbus at their home at 830 East Lomita avenue, will hold open house with an informal Hard Times dance.

A year ago this dance was very well attended and the many unusual costumes brought halos of joy to the occasion—and the dance was voted a grand success.

This year they are planning a more elaborate affair. Ten members circulating among the dancers will be chosen, and a prize given to the party guessing the greatest number of names of the unknown persons.

There will also be many prizes given away for the most unique, funniest, most descriptive costumes. Refreshments will also be served. In all, it will be a get-together party for Glendaleans, so that new acquaintances may be made and all may have a good time.

Kaufman of the Shrine club orchestra; readings by Mrs. J. A. Belyea and songs by D. Ripley Jackson, president of the club. The surprise feature of the program was the cornet solo by Clair Anspachi. SO. CALIFORNIA GAS FORETHOUGHT WARMS HOMES

Trunk Extensions Put in During Summer, Aid
in Cold Snap

Notwithstanding the fact that the past two days have, according to some records, been the coldest experienced here in ten years, the Southern California Gas company has given the people of this section practically 100% gas service. No more complaints than usual were turned in to the company, although the pull on the gas mains was several times as great as is ordinarily experienced.

This efficient service resulted, in a measure, through the forethought of the company officials in making trunk main extensions during the past summer and fall months. Another contributing factor was the loyalty of the employees of the company in this district. Also, it was necessary in order that domestic consumers might be served, to shut off the gas in connection with some of the large industrial consumers. All of the industrial consumers approached agreed readily to the using of oil for the duration of the cold spell.

The Southern California Gas company, according to Mr. Singer, manager, expects to get in its new building between March 1 and 15. After the change has been made the company will be in a much better position to take even better care of its customers. In the present quarters the force of employees is badly crowded.

These offices will be a one-story structure, with a foundation for a two-story building. The cost of the building is $50,000. It is 85x150 feet in size and is located on Maryland avenue.

The Glendale office is the official headquarters for activities of this company in the San Fernando valley, extending from Eagle Rock to Newhall. There are two district offices—one at Glendale and the other at Van Nuys.

The number of gas connections that are being made in this district is keeping pace with the growth of this locality. About 400 connections are being made per month in this entire valley.

Extensive mainlaying operations are going on in the Verdugo Woodlands district. The company expects to have all of those mains in place inside of three weeks. Gas has been turned into a portion of the mains, and several connections will be made the first of next week. The company is, at this time, putting out a preferred stock issue, and the sale is going on well. The confidence that is being shown in this stock is best expressed by the fact that almost 100% of the employees of the valley have made individual subscriptions to the issue.

"OLIVER TWIST" BREAD RUSH IS ON

A "run" was made yesterday on the new loaf of "Oliver Twist," that is just being introduced by the Perfect System bakery on Brand boulevard, Glendale. According to the proprietor the "bread line" formed at an early hour and the supply of Oliver Twists was soon exhausted. This firm is making a specialty of cream puffs and rolls, and it believes it is furnishing the finest quality of these articles to be found in Glendale.

A PROFITABLE LOSS
PULSITZ, Germany, Feb. 2.—Before the war Pulsnitz municipal authorities bought a big turbine and two huge boilers for an electric works, but found the project so expensive that the task was given up. Recently the city council sold the machinery for $5,000, 000 marks, sufficient to free the city of all its public debt and guarantee a loan for future use.

MOSCOW.—The professional unions demand a decree for the protection of the "health and honor" of the women employed in restaurants and amusements places, where they are exposed to insults by the public. No women should be employed after 11 p. m., this being apparently the hour when the "fun" begins.

FLOATING DOCKS FOR SEAGOING PLANES

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 2.—Huge airplanes, aided by floating docks every five or six hundred miles, may soon mean thirty hour trips across the Atlantic, according to Edward R. Armstrong, member of the National Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce. Armstrong predicts that huge planes of the hydro type, with a speed of 150 miles an hour, would be used to establish a transatlantic airline. To insure safety the aviation expert said that when the airline across the Atlantic was established, large stations or floating docks measuring 1200 by 400 feet would be established every four or five hundred miles.

"These stations," Armstrong said, "would be actually floating hotels and repair shops for the ships. They were stations or floating docks above the normal water level, thus preventing the top of the platform from being swept by waves."

BUSY SESSION IS HELD BY CITY COUNCIL

The following resolutions were adopted:

A resolution ordering the vacating of a 9.15 foot strip on Palmer avenue.

A resolution of intention for vacating an alley in tract No. 4585.

The following ordinances were introduced:

An ordinance establishing grade on Don Carlos, El Rito and Del Valle.

An ordinance establishing the grade on Piedmont avenue and Granada street.

An ordinance establishing the grade of Kenneth road, Elm and Raymond.

The clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for water pipe for municipal improvement district No. 7.

Clerk Van Wile was also instructed to advertise for bids for a carload of 8-inch, 40-foot poles.

Cornwell & Henderson were granted an extension of 30 days on the improvement of Columbus and Doran, in front of Solumbus avenue school.

Peter L. Ferry was granted an extension of 90 days on the improvement of Patterson, Chester and Fairmont avenue.

The Pacific Electric railway company was granted permission to substitute 8 inches of asphaltic concrete, 4 inches laid and rolled separately in place of the hydraulic concrete base and asphalt wearing surface such as the remainder of street is made of. This step was taken in order that the work of resurfacing that section of the roadway torn up by the P. E. in removing the tracks, might be facilitated. If the hydraulic pavement were laid, it would necessitate the street being closed for 8 or 10 days.

The hearing of protests against the assessments on Adams street and North Adams Place was continued for one week.

In the matter of the protests against the assessment on Pacific, Burchett and Stocker, it was decided to withhold decision until next Monday night.

The matter of the hearing of the lighting assessment on Brand was continued until one week from tonight.

It was ordered that $25 received from a movie company for use of fire truck be transferred to the firemen's and policemen's fund.

The matter of the billboard ordinance was postponed for one week.

The ordinance creating a park and recreation commission was adopted.

An ordinance was offered reducing the time in which heavy hauling is prohibited on newly made streets from six to three months.

SIR SMILE-UPS AND THE VACCINATION CRAZE

By MARY BREWERTON de WITT
319 East Cameron Place, Glendale
Said Smile-ups, "What a time this is when men are going mad. And want to vaccinate the cats. From thinking dog, and talking cat, they don't know what to do. The rabies have THEM in the brain, and that is very true! This madness seems to percolate from head of willy man. And so he takes his vengeance on anything he can."

Spondulicks they are after, and oh, it brings me smiles. The man in office seems to be quite devilish wiles. Now what's to pay, please tell me, since men are going mad. Let's vaccinate the bunch of them with common sense, by gad!

MOUND YIELDS TO THE MARCH OF PROGRESS

Striking Formation at Windsor and Central
Undergoes Changes

"The mound" at the northeast corner of Windsor road and Central avenue, has long been a striking landscape feature in Southern Glendale; 30 to 40 feet in elevation and several hundred feet in circumference at the base, its origin is a mystery. For a number of years a 5-room house stood on its very summit, but this was moved to a new location in Home Court, as it was then called, several years ago. It now bears the number, 122 West Acacia avenue. Getting it down from such an elevation without damage seemed quite a problem when it was first proposed, but the feat was successfully accomplished and with little difficulty. A beautiful mansion to occupy the summit was planned at one time and a winding road from the Central avenue entrance was constructed and the terraces were beautified with shrubs and flowers. The main portion of the mound, occupying a Central avenue frontage of 100 feet, with nearly 200 feet on Windsor road, is owned by Mrs. Joseph De Grasse. The north slope has recently been cut down about 15 feet and leveled off to accommodate a court of five or six houses, which rise one above the other. Most of them are of one-story construction. W. W. Haywood, the mound, so high above the surrounding houses, will be a beautiful feature.

CHAPTER C. J. HAS ALL-DAY MEETING

An all-day meeting of Chapter C. J. P. E. O. was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. W. W. Haywood. The forenoon was devoted to a business session and at noon a delicious luncheon was served by the assisting hostesses, Mrs. Durham Porter, Mrs. W. W. Hamilton and Mrs. W. H. Kimball. Following the luncheon a program was enjoyed which included a group of three humorous readings by Mrs. E. W. W. Haywood, and a round-table discussion of the question: "Should women in comfortable circumstances enter the business world?" Members and guests took part in the discussion and many points of view were presented. Guests present were: Mesdames Omstott, Book, Bartlett, Roberts, Wintersgill, Cross, Stoff, Julian Haywood and Miss Herrick. After the program a social hour was enjoyed during which the valentines were sold by the hostesses, the proceeds to go to the educational fund.

MRS. OLIVER HOST TO OLD FRIENDS

Mrs. Mary J. Oliver of 1314 North Central avenue entertained as her guests at a dinner party last night Mr. and Mrs. William Baumbach of Florida, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Morrill of Minnesota, who are spending the winter in Southern California. They have spent several winters in Florida, but have concluded that there is no place like Southern California for a home and are contemplating locating here permanently.

Barnard-Walters, Sparr Heights subdivision, at their realty office at 200 East Broadway. In connection with the real estate she will also sell Oakmont Country Club memberships.

No Rival for Dempsey, Says McAuliffe

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor
NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—Jack McAuliffe, the old retired lightweight champion, says there is no logical opponent for Jack Dempsey. He considers Dempsey to be safe as the heavyweight titleholder, as far as the present crop of contenders are concerned. Taking it for granted that Dempsey is still in good physical condition and even discounting the decline of form that necessarily results from a long absence from the ring, there is no outstanding figure in the heavyweight class that should cause the champion too much worry.

Benny Leonard has his Tandler to think about; Mickie Walker has the shadow of Dave Shide at his heels; Joe Lynch has Carl Tremaine to bother him and the other titleholders are in no positive state of security, but Dempsey has to get opponents by the exercise of circus methods of ballyhoo.

Tommy Gibbons at the present time looks to have the best chance of any of the contenders in a match with Dempsey. Perhaps he is not good enough to win the title, but he is best qualified to give the champion a fight.

Gibbons is fast, a great boxer and a fine two-handed hitter. He is smaller than the champion, of course, but it is a smaller man who is going to take the title away from Dempsey.

Big men never have given Dempsey trouble in the ring and on the other hand he has always had more difficulty with a small, fast opponent.

Good managers in these days are generally regarded to be managers who steer their charges clear of all dangers and traps in the path.

Harry Greb and Gene Tunney canned their managers because they didn't get them hard bouts.

Greb got peeved at George Engle because he didn't get a chance with Jack Dempsey and decided to handle his own affairs.

Tunney broke off his relations with "Doc" Bagley because the Doc didn't get him the engagement with Floyd Johnson that Tom Gibbons stepped into.

On Sunday the Glendale Indians tackle the fast L. A. Gas nine from Los Angeles at the Park and San Fernando grounds, at 2:30 p. m. Manager Bell of the Indians plans on starting his young star, "Bob" Bradbury, in Sunday's game and to those who will be present at this game a rare treat is promised.
